Dear Applicant,

Since you are inquiring about Women at the Well, I assume you know first-hand the pain and devastation addiction brings. There is hope! For years we have watched women break free and begin a new life. You can too!

Perhaps you are a parent, sibling, or friend watching someone you care about self-destruct. Maybe your hope is melting away along with their health and sanity. As a concerned person, you have hoped they would come to their senses. Women at the Well is here to help.

Women at the Well is a Christian faith-based program providing educational classes, counseling, and job skills training. At Women at the Well, individuals can break free and stay free! We trust you will seize the opportunity by contacting us to begin your recovery today.

In His Service,

Robin Nation

Attention Court Officials:

The Women at the Well is an 18-month residential program for women 18 and over with life-controlling problems. WATW is located in Athens, TN. In order to enter the WATW program, each potential student must complete the application process. The process may differ depending on the circumstances of the potential student. ALL potential students must be detoxed before entry.

Standard Application Process:

- 1) Potential student obtains application. This can be accomplished through our website, fax, postal mail or pick up from WATW office.
- 2) The potential student returns application to WATW in any of the above listed ways, along with a $50 application fee.
- 3) Attached to the application is a health screening form that the potential student must have filled out by a professional health care worker. The health screening form consists of various blood tests, urinalysis and a Pap smear. For the quickest entry, all results should be faxed to WATW.
- 4) Once all results have been submitted and reviewed by the Admissions Coordinator, a phone interview with the potential student will be scheduled and then the potential student will be given an intake date and time.

Exceptions-Inmate Applications:

- 1) Contact is made between inmate and WATW; this can be done by inmate, inmate's family, or a court appointed official.
- 2) Inmate needs to obtain an application from WATW; this can be done by postal mail or delivered by WATW to the correctional facility.
- 3) There is a health screening form attached to the application that must be filled out by a medical professional. If possible, the inmate can submit the health screening form to the facility nurse to begin the necessary medical tests. If the inmate cannot complete the necessary medical work while incarcerated, she may have the medicals done soon after entry for an additional fee of $100 that will be added on to her admissions fee.
- 4) There is a 15-20 minute phone interview that needs to be conducted by WATW; if a phone interview is not possible, WATW staff will come to the facility so a personal interview may be completed.
- 5) After the interview, a date for intake will be scheduled.
- 6) If WATW needs to pick-up inmate after release, arrangements can be made at this time as well.

WATW will cooperate with all court officials in areas of reporting to court officers and court dates.

Please do not hesitate to call the office with any questions or concerns.
